August 1998, Issue XXVI-3

Why drive when you can fly?

Vapor TRX turns the driving genre on its ear. Players maneuver fast, sleek spaceships through the far-out canyons and cities of future Earth, searching on-the-fly for weapons, turbos, and abundant shortcuts. Vapor TRX is a roller-coaster ride without the track!

One of the first things you'll notice about Vapor TRX - and what sets it apart in the arcade - is the sleek design incorporating a bench-style seat and a classic flight-style controller. Form and function combine to produce a seamless experience, one that offers the best combination of speed and perfect vehicle control. From the plentiful power-ups to the turbo tunnels, Vapor brings welcome diversity to your deluxe product mix!

THE TRACKS of VAPOR TRX:

Easy: Eagle Canyon (dawn); takes place outside in a great canyon over rushing rivers and through waterfalls.

Medium: Midnight Bullet (night time); an exhilarating future cityscape serves as backdrop for this challenging level.

THE VEHICLES of Venom: Tough, and a good combination of other elements very versatile. Speed 8, Acceleration 6, Handling 8, Durability 10 tundra.

Hard: Alpine Edge (daytime);

an icy blast through the arctic

Stratovaxx: Like a rocket, but handles like a greased pig. Speed 10, Acceleration 9, Handling 4, Durability 7

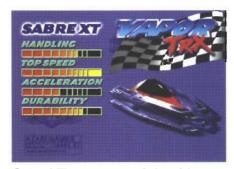

Skydozer: A very well-rounded vehicle, if you can handle it. Speed 7, Acceleration 9, Handling 7, Durability 10

Thunderhawk: Built like a tank, handles like a cat. Speed 4, Acceleration 6, Handling 9, Durability 9

Phoenix: Pure speed; watch those obstacles or you will rise again and again, like the phoenix of old. Speed 10, Acceleration 10, Handling 6, Durability 5

SaberXT: Nimble and durable, but a little sluggish off the blocks. Speed 7, Acceleration 4, Handling 10, Durability 8
